

22nd ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF THE PROGRESSIVE CHRISTIANITY NETWORK BRITAIN 17th MAY 2025

Trustee Nominations

Christine (Chris) King: of Exmouth, EX8. A member of the Network with an academic and personal interest in exploring issues of the understanding and experiences of Christianity. I am retired from my role as a University Vice Chancellor. I have published on various aspects of the history of Christianity including the history of minorities, like Jehovah's Witnesses, in Nazi Germany. Perhaps most relevant to PCN is my work on Implicit Religion (an examination of the religious meaning given to the secular- e.g. 'football is my religion'.) My work in this field is on Elvis Presley, considered by many to be a saint. I am a member of the Church of England.

I want to stand for election because I value the network, enjoy the journal and the privilege of writing book reviews. I find it a great virtual community and if I can help it grow and flourish, then I would be pleased to do so. I am only able to attend meetings online.

Proposer: David Ireson Secunder: Chris Avis

Julie Purves: of Marlow, SL7. A member of the network and a searching Christian, semi-retired having founded a software business 25 years ago.

I want to stand for election because I believe I can use my business skills, and particularly my (limited) financial skills to support the work of PCN.

Proposer: Peter Stribblehill Secunder: Simon Cross

Tony Sanchez: of London, W3. A member of the network and a counsellor/psychotherapist.

I want to stand for election because I want to support and further the aims of the Network. It has been a part of my life in some form for over 30 years and it means a lot to me.

Proposer: Alan Powell Secunder: Helen Powell

Adrian John Stark-Ordish (known as AJ): of Crowthorne, RG45. A member of the network and a chaplain in education who has been interested in progressive Christianity for some time, with a particular interest in Cupitt and Caputo.

I want to stand for election because I think the progressive Christian voice is vital in contemporary society and it has become important to me to actively contribute to the causes and groups that I think are important and valuable.

Proposer: Tony Sanchez Secunder: Jackie Wiegman
